A Message from Sligo Arts Service

Music lovers can look forward to this annual May Bank Holiday weekend of inspiring chamber music in the friendly, intimate and evocative setting of Drumcliffe, Co Sligo. The Vogler Quartet, the festival's ensemble-in-residence, has again assembled an array of artists of international standing from Ireland, various parts of Europe and beyond with acclaimed composer and performer, Daniel Schnyder, joining us as guest artist for this year's festival.

Sligo Arts Service works closely with Artscope, the Vogler Quartet, the Arts Council of Ireland and key stakeholders locally, regionally and nationally to ensure that Music in Drumcliffe retains its place as one of Ireland's most distinguished chamber music festivals. The festival is part of Sligo's strategic investment and focus on music development which will continue to be prioritised in this new decade.

Sligo County Council provides for the investment and development of the cultural and artistic life of the city and county through implementation of its strategy 'Space for Art' Sligo Arts Plan 2007-2012. Operating from its office in Sligo Development Centre, Sligo Arts Service delivers a programme of grants and arts activities funded by Sligo County Council and the Arts Council of Ireland and key programme partners.
